

Please observe my state's rights and leave Indiana's phone privacy law alone. My life has been much better since the no call list went into effect.